

SAVE THE SEABIRDS

Atypical collaborators seek clues to a species' decline

_____ see page 2

WAXING POETIC

Robert Pinsky on the value of verse

_____ see page 8

FARM-BELT PHOTOS

Lange winner focuses on workers in the field

_____ see page 8

Berkeleyan

Volume 35, Number 21

FEBRUARY 8, 2007

www.berkeley.edu/berkeleyan

ATC's birthday bash

To celebrate its first decade presenting artists, writers, scholars, and curators as diverse as David Byrne, Miranda July, Billy Klüver, Peter Selz, Julia Scher, and DJ Spooky, the Art, Technology, and Culture Colloquium is throwing itself a party on Monday, Feb. 12, in the Hearst Mining lobby. Events kick off at 7:30 p.m., with electronica duo Matmos speaking on "The Re-Dematerialization of the Art Object," followed by music, video, and live performances by Tycho, Eats Tapes, Ripley, and Kid Kameleon from 9 p.m. to midnight. Space is limited; arrive early for admission. For information, visit atc.berkeley.edu.